

Raleigh Mothers Very Indignant

Too Many Worthless Curs Are Allowed to Roam Streets of Capital.

WOMAN'S CLUB CRITICIZES

City Officials Reply by Swearing Out Over 600 Warrants for Owners.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., September 12.—The severe "mad dog scare" that has pervaded Raleigh the past few days has had the effect of almost completely putting an end to the presence of children with their canines in the public squares and playgrounds of the city, thereby depriving the children of their daily fresh air outings.

At a largely attended meeting of the Woman's Club of Raleigh to-day, sharp protest was made in resolutions against the city authorities for permitting great numbers of worthless curs to roam the streets of Raleigh unchecked. There is also a demand that all dog owners be required to keep up their canines for at least four weeks, and that all dogs found on the streets in the meantime be killed.

600 Warrants.

It is known that warrants are now being issued by the Police Justice for 600 or more owners of dogs who have not paid the city dog tax.

Leaf Tobacco Sales.

The report of August sales of leaf tobacco on North Carolina markets issued to-day by the State Department of Agriculture shows total sales 15, 236,498 pounds, of which 14,681,313 pounds were first hand for the growers and the other for dealers, and resold for the warehouses. Thirty-seven markets reported, sales being as follows:

Wilson, 2,516,563; Kinston, 2,066,124; Greenville, 1,501,533; Fair Bluff, 1, 417,179; Farmville, 829,727; Fairmount,

To Prison.

Sam Glover, the New Hanover county negro, who was under sentence to hang at Wilmington September 17th for killing another negro, and had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Glenn on the ground that it was not a clear case of murder in the first degree, was brought here to-day by Deputy Sheriff A. T.
Piver from Wilmington and committed to the penitentiary to take up his life sentence.

Sheriff J. B. Lanier, of Harnett county, brought two negroes, a man and a woman, to the penitentiary to-day, the man to serve fifteen years for burglary and the woman one year for larceny.

The Buffalo Mercantile Company, Buffalo Cove, Caldwell county, was chartered to-day with $25,000 capital authorized, and $1,500 subscribed, by J. M. Burnhardt, W. J. Bryant and others.

Sheth Skirt Picture.

The "directors gown" or sheath skirt moving picture is having an amazingly big run in one of the moving picture shows here, the place being packed for every performance during the afternoons and literally running over with men and women during the evenings.

The Raleigh Automobile Association was formed here to-night with H. I.
Godwin, president, there being about twenty-five charter members.

Club Formed in Winchester.

WINCHESTER, Va., September 12.— The Bryan and Kern Club was formed here to-night at a meeting at the country house hall. Democrats turned out en masse and listened to several lively political addresses by local spell-binders. This is the second Bryan and Kern Club formed here in a week.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy

Do you know any word in English that's played up as strong as "time"?
I don't. It's "time to eat" or "time to go to bed" or "time to go to school" (that's Pittsburgh time), "time to burn" (which is never here) or "doing time" or "time and the wind-up" (that's San Francisco time) or "any old time" but I was reading a good thing about a kid's time. It said:

"Your time is your capital, your stock in trade. It is the only kind of capital that costs you nothing to get and everything to lose. The successful young man hoards minutes as a miser hoards gold. If you waste a day or two now and then, you are going to run out of time in a little while. Youth doesn't last forever, and you want to make every day count. A loss of two hours a day means, before the end of the year, two whole months crossed off the calendar."

Now, what do you think of that?
Pretty true talk, I guess. Well, it's school time now, and I think of the good time you'll have to study before fly time comes around again.
Also the better time you'll have in school if you let this story be your wardrobe and dress up properly. Our school suits are "timely," and you're in good time to pick a winner. Prices range from $2.00 to $10.00.

Resignation of Evans.

Mr. John B. Evans has resigned the position of city chairman of the Democratic party. A meeting of the City Central Committee was held here today held last night to act on the resignation, but for lack of a quorum the meeting was adjourned over until next Wednesday night.

Mr. Evans resigned because of his business, which is of such a nature as to prevent him from giving the attention to politics that he would desire to give. Mr. Evans has been the Democratic chairman in Petersburg for a number of years, and has rendered valuable service to Democracy. Mr. Evans has always moved smoothly and satisfactorily under his administration, and the Democrats generally will regret to lose his services. Mr. Evans is the City Sergeant, and is a candidate for re-election.

Elizabeth Sotheron, to Mr. George Cameron, Jr., of this city. The wedding will take place on Tuesday, September 22d, at 12 o'clock, in St. Anne's Church, Annapolis, Md. The announcement is one of much interest in social circles here. Mr. Cameron is the president of the National Bank of A double frame tenement across the river, in Pocahontas, owned by James Thwaitt, colored, and occupied by colored families, was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock last night. The fire caught from flying sparks falling on the roof. The fire department could not respond to the call for assistance for the reason that the engines and wagons could not be taken over the bridges, so the tenants and neighbors had to fight the flames as best they could. Men and women formed a bucket brigade, and while they could not save the burning houses, they did good service in saving adjacent property. The destroyed property was insured for about two-thirds of its value in the Petersburg Savings and Insurance Company.

The hydraulic dredge of the Atlantic Dredging Company was put to work this morning filling up the big washout by the flood across Second Street, and rapid progress is being made. The dredge is pumping mud and sand from the river into the cut.

The upper half of the harbor was practically filled with sand and silt brought down by the late freshet.
Sandbars and islands of sand were created, and stands above low water Down opposite the steamboat landing one can walk across the river almost without wetting his shoes. But all this trouble is to be rectified as soon as possible by dredges, and a depth of Brazil's Purpose in Getting Fleet

But Sets Example Which Other South American Republics Will Follow for Self-Protection.

JEALOUSY OF UNCLE SAM

Smaller Governments, Chafing Under Feeling of Dictating Protection, Will Unite Forces.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] LONDON, September 12.—The Nation publishes a communication, to which it ascribes almost a semi-official character, in reference to the purpose of Brazil's new battleships, one of which was launched this week, and the general policy of the South American republics. It is set forth that Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Peru realize that the independence of a modern state with a long seaboard must be protected by the possession of a navy of an up-to-date type. They have no fear of either England or France, but there is an uneasy feeling about Germany as a new naval and colonizing power. Though little is evidenced on the subject, there is also a lurking jealousy of the United States, a fear not so much of aggression as of patronizing protection with dictation as its consequence.

There was a curious indication of this in the case of Brazil. At one time it proposed to include in its program the building of a number of submarine boats of the Lake type. The idea was afterwards abandoned, but while it was under consideration provisional arrangements were made with an enormous shipyard for building these American boats on this side of the Atlantic.

"No South American orders will go to the United States," said a prominent member of the naval commission. "None of the republics can afford to build a huge battleship fleet, but each of the four can build, as a beginning, a homogeneous squadron of the most powerful type, and a naval constructor can provide. The possession of these ships will be an assertion that each republic means to police its own seas and coasts without foreign interference, and in case of aggression against any of them, the local battleship squadron may expect help from the sister republics. The armaments of Brazil and Argentina, which are to be followed by corresponding steps on the part of Chile and Peru, are a sign that South America is no longer to be contented with the peaceful policy of the past.
There is now a feeling of solidarity between them. They are not arming against each other, but in the interests of each and all. We shall not see the coming of a United States of South America, but a league of the South American republics is a possibility of the near future."

Duchess of Marlborough Has to Abandon Laundry—America Visitors.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
LONDON, September 12.—The Duchess of Marlborough is having considerable trouble with her pet charity, a home for prisoners' wives, which she has generously endowed. There is a laundry in connection with the home, and the aristocratic neighbors object to the presence of a laundry where women outside for work. They threatened to bring suit against the duchess, who, after consulting her solicitor, discontinued the laundry. She was greatly indignant, and it is thought that she will probably remove it to another part of London.

night. Young Mabry stated that he gained an entrance by breaking the door with his flat. Mabry only got a small sum of money, which he took from the cash register.

Richard Jones, colored, who has been missing since Tuesday, September 8th, was found dead in his home, on Pink Alley, to-night. The police forced an entrance and found the body of Jones in a bad state of decomposition lying on the floor.

Democratic Campaign.

CHICAGO, ILL., September 12.—Another feature, besides the talking machine, in the records of the speech of candidates, has been added to the novelties of the presidential campaign by the Democratic National Committee, which to-day announced that moving pictures of William J. Bryan in Chicago on Labor Day would be thrown into the campaign, and that the pictures show Bryan speaking, the candidates voice will be heard from the phonograph record of the Labor Day address.

National Chairman Mack and heads of the campaign bureaus to-day witnessed a reproduction of the Bryan Labor Day scenes by the moving picture machine. The pictures show Mr. Bry-

SEEK TO PREVENT WASTE

National Conservation Commission Proceeding on Practical Lines.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The national conservation commission has just made public the first of its schedules on which the inventory of the country's natural resources is being conducted. It is plainly evident from the inquiries being sent out that the commission intends to hunt down waste in all its varied forms and to devise some means to prevent it.

This is apparent in the general schedule to each of the four sections of the commission—waters, forests, lands and minerals. For instance, the schedule relating to lands inquires into waste of soil by erosion. That schedule also suggests that through "bad agriculture methods," the lands schedule likewise goes into waste in the carrying capacity of the public range in the West. The section of waters is inquiring into how much land of irrigation is wasted by not being irrigated. More important still is its suggestive inquiries tending to show that we are wasting our waterways to an alarming extent by not using them as we should. The general schedule is that relating to water power.

Two of the inquiries are as follows:
"Are existing developed water powers put to their full use? To what extent can they be saved by the substitution of water power?" Under the head of "To what extent are flood waters wasted?" The minerals schedule of the commission is seeking to find out "the nature and extent of waste in the mining, extraction and use of mineral products" and "methods of preventing or lessening this waste." The commission is also conducting a census by correspondence to find the common wastes in wood using industries. The returns from the inquiries will form part of the report of the conservation commission.

DROP ATLANTA POSTMASTER

Dismissal of Mr. Blodgett and Three Clerks Recommended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 12.— As the result of an investigation by the postoffice inspectors, the dismissal of Postmaster Blodgett, of Atlanta, and three clerks in the Atlanta office has been recommended to Postmaster-General Meyer.

The charges in a way were necessarily attended to the duties of the office. Meyer has not yet acted upon the recommendation, but is expected to dispose of the matter upon his return to this city from New England, the latter part of next week.

Acting Postmaster-General Charles P. Grandfield, who left here to-day for Atlantic City, declined to discuss the case.
